This chapter features hockey collector items from the NHL's Original Six era, which lasted from 1942 to 1967. It features cards, photos stick-ers, postcards and mini posters. It also features packs, wrappers, empty boxes, shields and albums.

After 25 seasons, the NHL retracted to six teams for the 1942-43 campaign. That six-team lineup lasted another 25 years through 1966-67. During this era, the two Canadian teams won 18 of 25 Stanley Cups, with nine apiece by the Montréal Canadiens and Toronto Maple Leafs.

Two major card collecting milestones occurred during this era. First, there was the arrival of Parkies gum cards in 1951-52, thus kicking off a modern era for hockey cards. Then came the Topps / O-Pee-Chee hockey partnership in 1954-55, which three years later helped establish the standard card size in 1957-58 (63.5 mm x 88.9 mm).

Canada's Parkies-O-Pee-Chee card battle lasted until 1963-64. Starting in 1964-65, O-Pee-Chee would rule the Canadian marketplace for the next 26 seasons through 1989-90.
